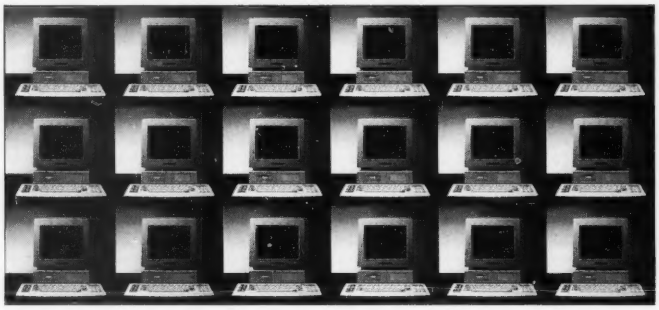
Which PC has the virus?

Quarantine knows... and will fix it too!



The risks to your valuable data through infection by a growing number of computer viruses should not be taken lightly. Many of the worst viruses are difficult to detect until it is too late. Why wait until your are a victim before taking action.

QUARANTINE from OmniSoftware is the high quality, professional answer to the risk of infection. Run regularly, at preset intervals, QUARANTINE will quickly identify symptoms of incursion and warn you.

Once the danger is spotted, QUARANTINE can track down affected files, dump them to a secure area for treatment and remove them from further risk. QUARANTINE is fast. It can even operate over your networks. QUARANTINE is not just health insurance for your LANS—it is the highest quality treatment around and it is available now from OmniSoftware.

Quarantine works with all DOS compatible networks. You are protected from procedure and investment obsolescence when network or DOS software is upgraded.

Server, site and corporate licenses available. Call the toll free 800-366-8671 number for a demo disk!

When it comes to testing LAN transmission equipment, Siecor's PETT is a winner. PETT stands for Portable Ethernet Transceiver Tester. It also stands for economical, high quality testing for Ethernet IEEE 802.3 compatibility. Its multimedia capabilities enable you to test coax, twisted pair, and fiber optic Ethernet transceivers with ease. Compact and lightweight, the PETT takes honors for craft friendliness, too. And, it leads the pack as the most cost-effective LAN installation tester you can buy. For more information, call 800-888-LAN1, or write Siecor Corporation, Electro-Optic Products, P.O.
